

Clint Bowyer/Greg Biffle time codes

- 3:30 – Introduction of Clint Bowyer, who talks Emporia hometown
- 5:00 – Why having other drivers attend his charity event meant so much
- 5:45 – On this season: “It’s hell”
- 8:30 – Did he get happier toward the end of the season?
- 10:45 – The importance of relevance (and Kid Rock)
- 13:00 – Planning the 2017 season with Stewart-Haas Racing
- 15:15 – Will his son, Cash, race?
- 16:30 – Introduction of Greg Biffle, who is nearing career milestones
- 18:15 – Memories of Mark Martin
- 20:15 – Being in the role of Roush Fenway Racing dean
- 21:45 – “I haven’t been able to do all the things I wish I could do.”
- 24:00 – “Nothing more frustrating than having the ability but not the equipment”
- 25:00 – Tracking when his 2016 season went south
- 27:15 – Why you drive harder when you run poorly
- 29:15 – How much longer does Biffle want to do this?
- 32:15 – On feeling less relevant